N.C.C. department started its activities with an enrolment drive in August 2022. Elegant charts, posters, and PowerPoint presentations at the orientation attracted the students, and 55 new cadets were enrolled in the First Year.

International Yoga Day

The NCC Department at Tuljaram Chaturchand College in Baramati took the initiative to celebrate International Yoga Day in collaboration with the Gymkhana Department by hosting an invigorating yoga session. The chief guest of this function was principal Dr.Avinash Jagtap Sir, with the presence of Dr.R.T.Sapkal Sir, Dr.S.B.Mane Sir, Dr. Mukta Ambhire Madam, Dr.Gautam Jadhav, Teaching and nonteaching staff and NCC cadets. Prof. R.D.Jagtap was the chief instructor for this function. The event aimed to promote fitness and ignite a passion for yoga among the students, with cadets and teachers participating in various 'asanas.' The yoga session included a comprehensive range of asanas such as Tadasana, Trikonasana, Padahastasana, Vrikshasana, Shashakasana, Bhujangasana, Ushtrasana, Ardhashakrasana, Bhadrasana, Vajrasana, Shalabhasana, Pawanmuktasana, Swasasana Nadi Shodhan, Kapal Bhati, Bhramari, Anulom Vilom, and Shitali Pranayam. These asanas offer many benefits, from improving mental and physical well-being to alleviating stress and tension. The event was a grand success, with 64 SD and 25 SW cadets in attendance.

Independence Day Celebration

On 15th August 2023, T.C. College in Baramati celebrated Independence Day with meticulously organized activities and ceremonies. Esteemed guests, including Hon. Shri, graced the event. Jawahar Shah Wagholikar, President, AES, Baramati, and Hon. Shri Milind Shah Wagholikar, Secretary, AES, Baramati, joined us in hoisting the national flag. The NCC unit presented a detailed report on their achievements, showcasing the dedication and discipline of our cadets. Additionally, the Chief Guest, Dr. Harshvardhan Vhora, made important announcements for the upcoming academic year, including the opening of NCC, NSS, and the Student Development Board programs. The day ended on a high note with a refreshment session at the Gymkhana Hall, providing students, faculty, and staff an opportunity to connect and strengthen relationships within our academic community.

Celebration of 71st Republic Day 2020

On the 26th January 2024, T.C. College, Baramati, organized a Republic Day celebration at the Gymkhana ground, commencing at 7:30 AM. The event witnessed the assembly of teachers, students, and distinguished guests.

The chief guest, Honorable Shri. Satyajit Pandarkar sir, Member of the Governing Council, Ankenat Education Society, Baramati, was escorted by pilots SGT Vaishnavi Ghorpade and Laxmi Ghorpade. Lt. Dr. Vivek Bale and Principal Dr. Avinash Jagtap Sir accompanied the Chief Guest during this ceremony, symbolizing the ceremonial significance of his arrival at the flag hoisting ceremony. The flag hoisting, executed by the chief guest, marked a poignant moment of unity and national pride.

The programme was held in the distinguished presence of Honorable Shri. Javahar Shah Wagholikar Sir, President of Anekant Education Society, Baramati, along with Secretary Honorable Shri. Milind Shah Wagholikar Sir, Secretary of Anekant Education Society, Baramati, added to the prestige of the occasion.

Parade Commander SUO Rohan Gawade provided a detailed report to the Chief Guest, followed by an impressive march past by the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd-year NCC cadets, showcasing discipline and dedication.

Acknowledging outstanding contributions, awards were bestowed upon deserving individuals, including SUO Rohan Gawade, JUO Prajacta Jawnjai, JUO Vanita Gambhire, JUO Ajinath Bhise, and the Best Cadet from the first year, Cdt Bankar Rohan.

A special felicitation was extended to Lt. Dr. Vivek Bale, who received appreciation for exemplary performance in the NCC All India Narmada Trekking Camp held in Gujarat.

The celebration concluded on a festive note with a tea session at the Gymkhana. Notably, Honorable Member of parliament Sou. Supriyatai Sule graced the event with her presence, engaging in conversations with attendees and adding to the friendly atmosphere.

The Republic Day celebration at T.C. College, Baramati, served as a heartbreaking expression of national pride and unity, reflecting the institution's commitment to commemorating significant milestones in the country's history.
