4. To discuss and incorporate the relevant feedbacks of the stakeholders (Students, Teachers, Parents, alumni, and employers) in the curriculum.

➤ Feedback received for the syllabus of S.Y.B.Sc Sem IV (2019 Pattern).

From Student: Students appreciated the focused topics, such as Air and Water Microbiology, and Bacterial Genetics. The inclusion of practical courses could offer hands-on experience.

From Teacher: Teachers found the syllabus concise and focused, allowing for in-depth coverage of specific topics. The inclusion of practical courses could facilitate active learning.

From Parent: Parents focused on nature of the syllabus as a potential strength, allowing students to delve deeply into specific areas of microbiology. Practical courses could be viewed as essential for skill development.

From Alumni: Alumni appreciated the specialized nature of the courses, potentially aligning with specific career paths. Practical courses could be seen as valuable for real-world application.

From Employer: Employers valued the focused topics, as they align with specific areas of microbiology relevant to industries. Practical experience gained through the courses could be seen as an asset.

➤ Feedback received for the syllabus of M.Sc-II Sem- IV (2019 pattern).

Student: The comprehensive coverage of topics, including Pharmaceutical Microbiology, and Microbial Technology. Practical courses and skill development components could enhance hands-on experience.

Teacher: The syllabus well-structured, covering key areas in microbiology. The inclusion of practical courses and skill development components aligns with hands-on teaching methodologies.

Parent: The diverse range of topics and practical components as valuable for their child's academic and career development. The inclusion of a certificate course and skill development modules could be seen as a positive aspect.

Alumni: Alumni appreciated the practical exposure gained through the dissertation and practical courses, preparing them for real-world applications. The inclusion of skill development courses could be seen as beneficial for career advancement.

Employer: Employers valued the practical skills gained through the dissertation, practical courses, and skill development components. The broad range of theoretical subjects could prepare graduates for diverse roles in the industry.

Resolution No. 4: Feedback was collected by the entire stakeholder & was incorporated in the syllabus.

5. Any other matter with the consent of Chairperson.

Resolution No. 5: No additional issues were raised for discussion.
