Overall Band Score	Overall	Score	Modest User
Test	5.0		Your result explained Test takers at Band 5 can typically listen to and process short stretches of speech to pick out discrete information, and can only somewhat follow detailed instructions. They can only understand directly-stated facts, attitudes, opinions and purposes in a limited way. They are also limited in their ability to pick out main ideas and infer implied meanings. In order to do this, they can keep short sections of what they have heard in their short-term memory. They can understand vocabulary relating to familiar and some less familiar topics.
Listening	5.0
Reading	4.0		Test takers at Band 4 typically have a limited ability to deal with straightforward factual and opinion-based texts. Their ability to understand create meaning using vocabulary is generally within sentences rather than across sentences. They have some limited ability to understand directly stated information, opinions and arguments, and also some ability to extract key words from texts.

The test taker has a partial command of the language and copes with overall meaning in most situations, although they are likely to make many mistakes. They should be able to handle basic communication in their own field.
Advice to improve your score
Continue learning more words on more topics. In addition, learn common words and expressions used in talks and presentations to signal how the talk is organised. Listen regularly to authentic recordings and video clips on TV or the internet. Use the subtitles to help you if needed. Beyond main ideas and specific details, try to understand the relationship of one speaker's ideas to another speaker's ideas, or how a story is developing. Use the clues contained in the language they use.
Improve by reading everyday texts on more topics. Pick ones where you don't know all the words. Try to understand the text, guessing if needed. Try also to see how sentences beside each other are related. Afterwards, look up the things you don't understand so that you improve. Also try to read texts where you need to find specific information, such as in notices, timetables and catalogues. You have strategies for finding information quickly in your own language. Use the same strategies to find the important information as quickly as you can.
