Respected Sir,

Every year, International Day of Forest is celebrated on 21th March to increase the awareness about forest conservation and its values to society, an important component of our ecosystem. Accordingly, Department of Zoology had celebrated this day by arranging a lecture that helped to increase the awareness about the issue among the participants.

Dr. Vitthal Nale enlightened and guided the students about the role of forest in our daily life as well as in the ecosystem. Mr. Kishor More elaborated the values of forest resources for welfare of human as well as for animals. Dr. Sameer Jadhav had highlighted about threats to forest and different ways of conservation of forest at individual and social level.

Dr. Sandip Chordiya guided the students about how one can help in forest conservation.

Total 53 students and all faculties and non-teaching staff-members attended this program.

I am submitting this report for your perusal.

Thanking you

Yours' Sincerely
