'Script Writing for Video Production' Three Days Workshop Report

The Department of Media and Communication studies organized a three days workshop on 'Script Writing for Video Production' from 14th to 16th September 2022. Assistant Professor, Prof. Vaishali Kendale, Director, Actor and Screenplay Writer, Mumbai has conducted the workshop. This workshop was arranged for B.Voc. and M.Voc. students.

Each day of the workshop was divided into two sessions of three hrs. First session started at 10.30 am. and concluded at 1.30 pm. Second session started at 2.00 pm. and concluded at 5.00 pm. On the first day of the workshop Miss. Vaishali Kendale gave the information about documentaries and how to write the screenplay of non-fiction with the help of his own critically acclaimed documentary "Investing Life". She also gave a deep narrative on the research work she has done before the actual production of the documentary. In the second session of the first day Miss. Vaishali Kendale introduced the students to other various non-fictions and their scripting styles.

On the Second day of the workshop, students were shown fiction works, such as short films and commercial films in order to understand the difference between documentary and fiction with respect to its screenplay. She also enacted her portrayal of character from "Pistulya", Directed by Nagraj Manjule which won, 58th National Film Award for Best First Non-Feature Film of a Director, National Film Award – Special Jury Award. Students' active participation was seen in depicting various characters from the respective short film.

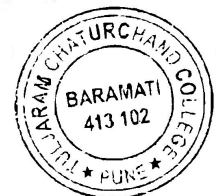

On the last day of the workshop Miss. Vaishali Kendale taught character building and they let the students build a character of their own for a fiction work. She also showed her work, "Chasing Dreams". Students also discussed their queries regarding screenplay drafts, pre-production, post-production which will be helpful for their on-going semester projects.

This workshop was very useful to students to understand the various processes of screenplay writing for Video Production. As well as understanding the difference of writing in documentary (non-fiction) and short films and feature films. Total 60 students were present for the workshop. Asst. Prof. Rahul Chaudhari, HOD of Media and Communication Studies department was the coordinator of the workshop. We are very thankful to Dr. Chandrashekhar Murumkar, Principal, Dr. Kakde Sir, Coordinator, ED Cell for giving such a great opportunity to conduct this workshop. This workshop will be helpful to students for their video production projects.
