Subject: Certificate Course in Banking.

Respected sir,

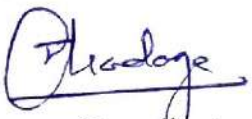

As you are aware that our college is running a number of certificate courses to enhance the utility value of the education. 'Certificate Courses in Banking' this course was approved in the first term. Especially, BA students have completed this course in the first term. Now in this second term 14 students of PG have registered for this course. However, it is requested that the students of PG should be allowed to start this course. The syllabus of the course is approved by our Board of Studies. The syllabus of the course is presented to you in the requisite format. The course would be conducted by the faculty of our Department.

However, we request you again to allow this.

As always, we are confident about your support and guidance.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
