Detail information of the programme:

The Department of Media and Communication Studies celebrated "Patrakar Din" on January 6th, 2024 commemorating the birthday of Shri. Balshastri Jambhekar, the father of Marathi Journalism. This year, the department arranged a one-day guest lecture focusing on News reporting for digital and electronic media, as well as a lecture on Political Public Relations (PR) for the students. The event featured two distinguished professionals from the media sector: Dnyaneshwar Rayate from Maha News Live, (Baramati) specializing in news reporting, and Kanchan Khare, an expert in Political PR (Mumbai).

The guest lecture took place at V.Shantaram Studio in the DMCS department, commencing at 12 PM with the ceremonial worship of Balshastri Jambhekar's image, symbolizing the journalistic roots. The inauguration was initiated by Sayali Ganeshkar, an F.Y.B.Voc JMC student. Kanchan Khare, a Political PR Advisor, in the first section, discussed the intricacies of PR in the political sector, emphasizing its significance, future job opportunities, and sharing personal experiences in the dynamic field of political communication. Subsequently, Dnyaneshwar Rayate, in the second session, provided guidance to students on news reporting for electronic and digital media.

During the guest lecture, HoD and Prof. Rahul Chaudhari, Prof. Ranjit Pandit, Prof. Gayathri Nandhakumar, and Prof. Rutuja Agam, attended the ceremony. Prof. Rutuja Agam, under the guidance of the head of the department, organized the guest lecture for the students. The program concluded with Tanvi Gawali, an F.Y.B.Voc student, expressing sincere gratitude on behalf of the 34 participating students in this enlightening celebration of "Patrakar Din".
