Subject: Action Taken Report on Curriculum Feedback

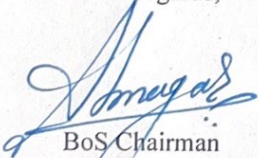

I am writing to inform you that the Feedback Committee's report on the curriculum for the academic year 2023-2024 has been thoroughly reviewed and discussed in the recent Board of Studies (BoS) meeting. The committee's detailed analysis and insightful recommendations were carefully evaluated during the discussions.

I am pleased to confirm that the key suggestions from the feedback report have been successfully integrated into our syllabi. This incorporation reflects our ongoing commitment to delivering high-quality education that caters to student needs and aligns with industry standards. We are confident that these updates will significantly enhance the educational experience and better equip our students for their future careers.

We extend our sincere appreciation to the Feedback Committee for their hard work and valuable contributions. We also thank all BoS members for their active involvement and collaboration in this important process.

Thank you for your continuous support and cooperation.

Warm regards,

BoS Chairman
