Exam and Evaluation Flow Chart

The Examination and Evaluation process is a crucial aspect of academic life, designed to assess students' knowledge, understanding, and competency in various subjects. The flow chart below outlines each stage of the examination and evaluation process, from the initial notification of exams to the final declaration of results, including provisions for re-evaluation, if applicable. This structured approach enables students, faculty, and administration to work collaboratively, ensuring a smooth and transparent assessment experience.
