Detail information of the programme/activity:

At Gandhi Goshala, feeding time is a joyous occasion for both the cows and the volunteers. The cowshed is filled with the aroma of fresh hay and the sound of gentle lowing as the cows await their meal. The volunteers carefully prepare the food, consisting of hay, grains, and fruits, and distribute it among the herd. The cows eagerly devour their meal, their eyes shining with gratitude. The atmosphere is tranquil, with the only sounds being the gentle munching of the cows and the occasional chirping of birds. As the feeding time comes to an end, the cows settle down contentedly, their bellies full and their spirits lifted.
