On 10/09/2023, a group of enthusiastic NSS volunteers from Tuljaram Chaturchang College of Arts Science and Commerce Baramti participated in the Guinness World Record attempt organized by Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU). The event aimed to set a world record for the largest assembly of participants engaged in a social service activity. This massive event brought together NSS units from various colleges affiliated with SPPU, demonstrating their commitment to public service and teamwork. The primary goal of the event was to set a Guinness World Record by gathering the maximum number of volunteers in a single activity promoting social welfare. This initiative also aimed to instill a sense of unity among students from different NSS units, while raising awareness about the importance of community service and collective effort in addressing societal issues. The record attempt was planned meticulously and conducted at the SPPU campus, with a focus on ensuring the smooth coordination of all participants. The NSS volunteers from Tuljaram Chaturchang College of Arts Science and Commerce Baramti actively contributed with 50 volunteers to the event by participating in the various activities outlined by SPPU. These activities included:

Tree Plantation Activity: In addition to the cleanliness drive, the volunteers also engaged in a tree plantation campaign within the university premises.
