Guidelines of MoU/Collaboration/Linkage

1. Introduction

The primary goal of MoU/Collaboration/Linkage policy promotes academic excellence, research, industry partnerships, student internships, placement and enrichment of the faculty and students. It enhances knowledge sharing, exchange programs, and capacity-building opportunities.

2. Types of MoUs

Academic Collaboration: Joint research, faculty exchange, and student exchange programs.

Industry Partnerships: Internships, project sponsorships, joint training programs, and placement support.

Research and Development: Collaborative research projects, funding support, and intellectual property sharing.

International Cooperation: Organization of seminar/workshop/conference

3. Eligibility for MoU/Collaboration/Linkage: College typically partner with recognized universities, industries, research organizations, non-profit organizations, or governmental agencies.

Internal stakeholders like faculty members or heads of departments may propose the initiation of MoU/Collaboration/Linkage.

4. Proposal and Approval Process: The faculty or department interested in an MoU/Collaboration/Linkage submits a detailed proposal under the guidance of the Principal and IQAC office. After review, the IQAC office may approve or reject the MoU proposal. It might also request modifications to align with institutional goals.

5. Drafting and Negotiation (Terms and Conditions): The MoU/Collaboration/Linkage defines mutual responsibilities, resource sharing, timelines, and termination clauses.

Negotiation: Both parties discuss and finalize the terms of the collaboration, including deliverables, funding, and ownership of intellectual property (if applicable).

6. Key Components of MoU/Collaboration/Linkage:

Objectives: Clear goals and outcomes of the collaboration.

Duration: Timeframe for which the MoU/Collaboration/Linkage is valid, often ranging from 1 to 2 years, 3 to 5 years and long-term association with mutually agreed terms and conditions.

7. Roles and Responsibilities: Defined roles for both parties in terms of resource allocation, staffing, and project implementation.

8. Termination and Renewal: Conditions under which the MoU/Collaboration/Linkage can be terminated or extended, typically with mutual consent.

9. MoU Repository and Documentation:

Colleges often maintain a repository of active MoU/Collaboration/Linkage including copies of the agreements, reports on progress.

10. Exit Strategy:

The MoU/Collaboration/Linkage included clauses for dispute resolution, termination, or withdrawal of either party in case of unsatisfactory progress or changes in strategic goals.

Conclusion:

MoU/Collaboration/Linkage policy for colleges serves as a blueprint for establishing successful and beneficial partnerships, enabling them to leverage external expertise and resources for academic and institutional growth.
