YOU MUST KNOW MORE BUYING Gold Jewellery

The price of gold jewellery is determined by the purity of the gold, which alloy it is combined with and the amount of skill and labour that goes into the making of the article.

Gold has many variations. In addition to yellow gold, white gold and rose gold are also popular options. You can also find many different colours if you prefer a mix of colours, but the primary demand for gold comes from the world's jewellery markets for yellow gold, white gold and rose gold in precious metals.

In many countries including India, local law requires that every item of gold jewellery bears a unique stamp indicating its content. Identification is often controlled through a hall marking system. Jewellery usually comes with a unique number, year of production, manufacturer's mark and its weight is printed on the item.

HOW TO FIND ADULTERATED FOOD

FOOD DIY IN PEAS

Add a table spoon of green pea to 100-110 transparent glass. Add half a cup of water. Stir it well. If water remains clear, it is safe to eat. If water turns cloudy, it is adulterated.

CLAY IN COFFEE

Add 1/2 tea spoon of coffee to transparent waste glass. Stir for minute & keep it aside for 5 min. Observe glass at bottom. Pure coffee will sit at the top of water. Clay particle at bottom of glass.

FOOD DIY IN RICE

Take a few grains of rice palm of rice hand. Rub it with cloth or newspaper. Rubbing will release oil & it appears as yellowish color. This means rice is adulterated with gypsum.

BLEACH IN FLOUR

Bleached flour will have a bright & fine grain. Unbleached flour will be lack pale and of white, with a dross green.

ARTIFICIAL COLOUR IN TURMERIC

Add a teaspoon of turmeric powder to a glass of water. Natural turmeric powder turns yellowish color. Artificial turmeric powder turns blue color. This is due to the presence of synthetic color.

CONSUMER AWARENESS

6 TIPS YOU MUST KNOW BEFORE BUYING

PURITY
Always check the purity mark on gold jewelry. BIS (Bureau of Indian Standards) is the authority that certifies the purity of gold jewelry. BIS marks are found on gold jewelry. BIS marks are found on gold jewelry.

PRICE
The price of gold jewelry is determined by the purity of the gold which varies from 18 to 24 karats. The higher the purity, the higher the price. Always check the purity mark on gold jewelry.

CARAT
Gold has many carats. The higher the carat, the purer the gold. Always check the carat mark on gold jewelry.

COUNTERFEIT
Always check the carat mark on gold jewelry. Counterfeit gold jewelry is sold at a lower price than the real gold jewelry. Always check the carat mark on gold jewelry.
