Report on one day workshop on 'Script Writing'

Entrepreneurship Development Cell and Department of Media and Communication Studies organized one day workshop on 'Script Writing' on 14th March, 2020. 'Script Writing' workshop conducted by Mr. Vikrant Pawar, Script Writer and Director

Workshop divided into three sessions. In the first session Mr. Pawar introduced basic terms in script writing such as writing skills, writing for different medium, screenplay writing, and structure of short film writing. Mr. Pawar, screened two Short Films and explained the Story line of both short films.

In the second session Mr. Vikrant Pawar has conducted activity for writing. He made groups of students and gave them different topics. Then he checked the draft of each group and discussed with students. He also discussed the script of third year student's projects. He gave the suggestions regarding story line and dialogue sequence of their script.

Last session was based on opportunities for script writer in Film and Television industry. The question and answers session held at the end. He gave answer to student's queries. He concluded the Workshop by showing his National Award winning short film 'Katal'. Total 73 students were present for the workshop. We are very thankful to Dr. Chandrashekhar Murumkar, Principal, Dr. Vikas Kakade, Chairman, ED cell for giving such a great opportunity to conduct this workshop. This workshop will be helpful for students.
