Activity Report: Awareness Program on Scholarship and Financial Aid Programs by SARTHI, BARTI, and MAHAJYOTI Institutes

An awareness program on scholarships and financial aid programs offered by SARTHI, BARTI, and MAHAJYOTI institutes was conducted in T.C. College for the benefit of graduate students from the SC, ST, OBC, and Minority communities. The program aimed to provide detailed information about the various scholarship schemes and financial support initiatives available to students from these communities to ensure that no eligible student is deprived of higher education opportunities due to financial constraints.

*Noted

Objectives

The key objectives of the program were:

1. To introduce students to the scholarship and financial aid programs of SARTHI, BARTI, and MAHAJYOTI.
2. To explain the eligibility criteria, application procedures, and deadlines for availing these scholarships.
3. To promote equal opportunities in higher education for students from marginalized communities.
4. To address queries and concerns related to financial aid.

Outcome

The program was a successfully completed. Students expressed appreciation for the clear and informative. Many students signed up for assistance in filling out the scholarship forms and sought further guidance on financial aid opportunities. This initiative significantly raised awareness about the opportunities available through SARTHI, BARTI, and MAHAJYOTI, ensuring that more students from marginalized communities can access higher education without financial barriers.

Conclusion

The awareness program successfully fulfilled its objective of empowering students with knowledge about scholarships and financial aid programs. By doing so, it paved the way for more students from SC, ST, OBC, and Minority communities to pursue higher education without financial hurdles.
