Department of History

Department Profile

Established in 1962, the Department of History stands as a beacon of historical scholarship and academic excellence within our institution. Rooted in a deep commitment to understanding the past and its relevance to the present, we offer a range of undergraduate and postgraduate programs tailored to nurture a passion for history and equip students with critical analytical skills.

Vision

To be a dynamic hub of historical inquiry, fostering a deep understanding of the complexities of the past and its enduring impact on human societies.

Mission

1. To provide students with a rigorous and comprehensive education in history, cultivating critical thinking, analytical skills, and historical empathy.
2. To conduct innovative research that pushes the boundaries of historical knowledge and interpretation, addressing key questions and challenges.
3. To engage with the broader community through public outreach, collaborative projects, and educational initiatives that promotes historical awareness and appreciation.
4. To uphold the highest standards of academic integrity, inclusivity, and ethical conduct in all aspects of our work.
